THE ELECTION NEWS IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Nov 4 —The Democrats are greatly disgusted at the completeness of our victory, and are trying to console themselves with the idea that Grant will follow in the footsteps of Tyler and Johnson At the room where they received the returns last night speeches were made by nine persons five of whom expressed the belief that he would turn out to be a good Democrat One thought he would prove a Cromwell and another said he would probably be a Cæsar Colonel Cavanagh delegate in Congress from Montana, believed there would never be another election in the country

The Star this evening uses the following language on the subject

We do not doubt that President Grant s administration will naturally and intentionally tend towards moderate and conservative measures but that it will meet the views and win the praise of all true friends of the country we have just as little doubt In fact, the prospect is that he will prove to be a good enough Democrat for all enlightened and patriotic Democrats and enough Republican for all liberal and large minded Republicans.

The Intelligencer reminds the Democratic party "I told you so" and in conclusion takes a whack at Belmont and Tammany in the following square terms

The result which we chronicle to day of the vote of the State of New York fully proves that our worst apprehensions have been realized The evidence of the treachery is plain It will be seen that Hoffman leads Seymour by many votes and the caution which we gave a few days ago has been unheeded Tammany with all its corruptions has triumphed at the expense of all party fealty and will now revel in undisturbed possession of the spoils wrung from the overtaxed people of the Empire State With such an unequivocal profession of duplicity and treachery as this result exhibits we call upon the Democrats and Conservatives of the country to secure in the future all affiliation with their spoilsmen

John Florence says in his paper that Belmont has twice led the Democratic party to disgraceful and disastrous defeat, and the least he can now do is to resign his position as Chairman of the Executive Committee and if he will not do so he should be removed Florence evidently means to keep in view the necessities of number one for he has the following paragraph at the head of his editorial column

"On the 4th of March General Grant will be inaugurated President of the United States There is no proof that he has not a genuine attachment as an American to American institutions There is no proof that he entertains hostilities to our constitutional form of government and since he has been the central figure in the eye of the American people, he has exhibited qualities and capacities which mark him as a man of honor courage and ability

Wine

THE FRENCH VINTAGE FOR 1868

From Le Moniteur Vinicole

The vines of 1868 will be of good quality and the quantity will be that of a good average crop, from 50 000,000 to 55 000,000 of hectolitres We think it doubtful however whether wine will be cheap The stock on hand from previous years is not large and there is already a demand for the produce of the present vintage, many orders having come from abroad and even been executed French speculators are also in the market This year s yield would have been large but for some late frosts two especially on the nights of the 11th and 19th of April which did much damage in the South

An obstinate drouth which lasted more than a year in Provence and in a good part of the Lower Languedoc, made it impossible to repair the damage occasioned by that frost and as those districts produce a great abundance of the inferior sorts of wine the loss they have experienced will deprive distant markets of a stock that cannot be estimated at less than five or six millions of hectolitres This must have considerable effect on the prices In some regions of France terrible storms have ravished the vineyards and unfortunately some valuable wines have in this way suffered

The delicate Sauterne the cordial and piquant Chablis have been terribly ill treated and the misfortune is the greater because the rudeness with which the hail has beaten upon these vines is likely to impair their productiveness for two or three years In the South west and South center the wine harvest is expected to range from a good middling yield down to something considerably worse The Gironde will have good wine and in a satisfactory quantity The higher qualities of Medoc are said to have succeeded particularly well But the departments of Gers Landes and Basses Pyrenees have been very little favored

Burgundy has had various fortune The department of the Yonne much tried by hail has had its crop reduced by at least an eighth Beaujolais will be better in quality than in quantity and the same may be said of Macon The North east district of Saone at Loire contiguous to the Cote d Or will make a great deal of wine The Cote d Or itself gives the greatest promise Its fine well kept vineyards producing some of the best wines in France have the most opulent aspect [illegible] glad tidings from Clos Vougeot

Life in a Dark Place

There is a certain Democratic editor in Oregon who has discernment enough to perceive the situation and judgment enough to comprehend the necessities of his party. This editor is none other than he of the Yamhill Courier. All his brethren are in the dark; he has received light. They are all blind Bourbons; his eyes have been unsealed, and he actually begins to see things as they are. Moreover he has begun to proclaim his discoveries to his brethren, if haply he may lead them also out of darkness into light. The chances are that they will mock and hiss, and it may be they will stone him.

The Courier makes an attack on a recent article of the Herald's, wherein the latter paper censured Frank Blair and condemned what it called certain "political experiments" of the leaders of the Democratic party. Quoting from the Herald the remark that the "temporizing policy of the Democracy in regard to the war has kept the Democratic party in a disorganized condition," the Courier keenly inquires: "If their policy was temporizing, which side would you have had them take? a war for the Government or for the South? Or would you have had them observe a strict neutrality?" Truly these be knotty questions for one Democrat to put another. Quoting further from the Herald a denunciation of the attempt to run the Democratic party on an abolition war platform, the Courier says that "slavery is abolished and all sensible people recognize abolition as a fixed fact," and then proceeds to express the following extremely anti-Democratic doctrine:

> A war was necessary to preserve the Union, and had there have been no troops called out by the Government to preserve the Union, the South would have been an independent nation. More: The South would have overrun the whole nation, captured the capital, and from Washington City dictated laws for us, would have changed our form of government more than the Radicals have done, and Toombs would have called the roll of his slaves under Bunker Hill Monument.

Now what have Democrats to say to such gospel preaching as this? The Courier is telling stubborn truths. And in the next paragraph it cuts still deeper by saying that "the party that would accept secession rather than a war to keep the country together can never control the destiny of this great country." Democrats, do you hear that? Every word of it is true. And the truth of it is just what is the matter with your party. You proposed "to accept secession rather than a war to keep the country together." The people know this and cannot forget it. Hence you were defeated. We congratulate the Courier on being able to see it. And we commend its boldness for trying to impress such a fact on the mind of its party. The Courier actually possesses more penetration and judgment than all the other Democratic organs in the State, taken together; but we opine that its brother Democrats, instead of laying to heart the truths it would teach them, will with one accord read it out of the party.

"REDUCING THE ARMY."—Under this caption a leading Chicago paper publishes an article calling upon Congress to reduce the army to the extent of at least one Brigadier General, and dismiss Gen. Rousseau as promptly as the law can reach his case. Under his administration in New Orleans no Republican dared approach the polls to vote, and the consequence was that the rebel-Democratic vote was over 25,000, while the Republican vote was less than 300. The paper alluded to says: "He who uses his official position to violate the personal and political rights of the people, who uses that position to screen murderers and make assassination a matter of duty, who, by the aid of armed traitors, established birthplace and color as a test of citizenship, in violation of law, and thereby confined suffrage to the assassins and traitors, deserves neither forbearance nor gentleness any longer. The Congress was weak enough, in reorganizing the army, to create an additional Brigadier Generalship, to which Gen. Rousseau was appointed. Gen. Rousseau has proved himself unworthy of the office thus conferred upon him in a moment of confidence and into which he crawled by the most groveling protestations. Let him be dismissed. The general reduction of the army will follow the establishment of peace, but in his case let the reduction take place at once and by special act."

A MISTAKE.—The San Francisco Call, a Democratic paper, says: "Out of over a thousand votes registered in San Bernardino county, only some six hundred and fifty were polled on the day of election. As the Republicans polled their usual vote, it follows that the stay-aways were, as a general thing, Democrats. The ultras among them could not stand Blair. He had fought for the Union, and committed the 'unpardonable sin' in their estimation. Something like forty refrained from voting in Tuolumne county, we are informed, for the same reason." Of course it follows then that if Hampton, or Forrest, or some other Democrat of like incorruptibility, and standing squarely on Democratic principles, had been nominated, the ticket would have received the full vote of the party.

INGRATITUDE.—An editor of this city who a few days ago voted for F. P. Blair, Jr., for Vice President of the United States, says in his paper: "Old Frank Blair is now in his eightieth year. Thank God he is too old to beget any more Franks." Democratic ingratitude is positively atrocious. The editors of that party had for months been lauding Gen. Blair and praising his revolutionary declarations as the very height of wisdom and statesmanship; and now when defeat has overtaken them, they curse the leader of their own choosing for having avowed the sentiments which caused them to nominate him.

"LET US HAVE PEACE."—We think the reader will agree with us that the following extract from Homer's second epic, the Odyssey, is appropriate at this time. We copy from the twenty-fourth book of that poem, Pope's translation:

Since Ulysses' hand
Hath slain the traitors, heaven shall bless the land.
None now the kindred of the unjust shall own;
Forget the slaughter'd brother and the son:
Each future day increase of wealth shall bring,
And o'er the past Oblivion stretch her wing.
Long shall Ulysses in his empire rest,
His people blessing, by his people blessed.
LET ALL BE PEACE.

NO PLACE OF REFUGE.—The "aged scribe" of the Herald says that if he believed the Democratic party responsible for the personal crimes imputed to it by Radical editors, he would eschew politics and flee to some other country. The trouble is here: Beriah has fled from so many places already that there is nowhere for him to go. He will have to give that project up.

The Pacific Railroad

It is now certain that the Pacific Railroad will be completed at a much earlier day than could have been anticipated a month ago. The San Francisco Bulletin, in a recent article, expressed the opinion that there would be a through train by April next, and the Chicago Tribune, of the 6th inst., thinks it not improbable that this event will be witnessed at an earlier day. The fact is that less than 400 miles of road now remain to be completed to close the gap, and before the world knows it, it will wake up some morning to be told that the last rail has been laid between the Atlantic and the Pacific. It is believed that the work has now reached such a stage that it can be prosecuted without much interruption from winter, and as the managers of each line have millions at stake in the rapid completion of their work, they will not be likely to let it flag where it is possible to push it forward. By the close of this year the rails of the two roads will be within a very few miles of each other, if not actually joined. The Central Pacific Company are fully confident of their ability to reach the north end of Salt Lake by the first of April, but the Union Pacific Company expect to be west of this point before that time. Taking into account the calculations of the companies, together with the known facts, and it appears pretty certain that trains will run through by the close of the first quarter of the year 1869.

SAD TO TELL.—Beriah relates another instance in which his "gray hairs" have been treated with indignity by the fiendish Radicals. He was once a Regent of the University of the State of Wisconsin, but as soon as the Republicans carried the Legislature they superseded him by electing an "Abolition partisan" in his place. Terrible outrage! The supersedure was clearly intended to subserve partisan ends,—that is, to put a stop to a certain class of operations on the State educational fund. Such is "Abolition decency." "Insult to the aged" is its constant habit.

STATE ITEMS

J. B. Underwood and wife of Eugene have gone East to remain during the winter.

The Albany Democrat is regaling its readers with articles against "Abolitionism."

The houses of Amos Hallock and A. K. Brown of Benton county were destroyed by fire a few days ago. Origin of the fire unknown.

The Baptist societies of Eugene have been holding a protracted meeting for several days past. The services have been conducted by the churches North and South.

A meeting was held at Albany last week to devise means for securing the route of the East side railroad through that place, and otherwise aiding and encouraging the enterprise.

The Democratic papers continue to defend the conduct of their members in the Legislature. The organ at Albany, however, condemns the action of that body in one respect, viz: "We shall ever be of the opinion that the Legislature did wrong in not overhauling the election returns and ejecting Woods from office, and putting Col. Kelley in his place."

Says the Albany Democrat: John Irvine, the son of our sheriff, met with a distressing accident on last Thursday night at the Court House. While attempting to leap over the chain around the raised platform in front of the building, his foot caught in the cable, and his head and body were precipitated over the platform to the ground, the force of the fall knocking him insensible. After coming to his senses and sitting upright he began expectorating blood and complaining of sharp pains, and it is feared that he has received internal injuries which may yet prove dangerous.

The Albany Register says a man named John A. Ambler, living on the South fork of the Santiam, about five miles from Lebanon, met with quite a misfortune on the night of the 10th of November. The circumstances as related to us are about these: On the night mentioned above, after the family, consisting of Mr. Ambler and wife, two grown daughters and an infant, had retired to rest, a violent storm of wind and rain set in, forcing open the front door of the dwelling with so much noise that the whole family were aroused and sprang from their beds. While the family were engaged securing the door, a large tree standing near the house, was blown down by the wind, and falling on the house made a complete wreck of it, crashing through roof, walls and floor. Strange to say, no one was killed or seriously hurt, although the tree fell directly across the beds that had been deserted but a moment before by the terrified occupants, missing the head of the infant child (the only one occupying a bed when the tree fell), but a few inches. Mrs. Ambler's head was slightly cut by a limb or splinter; Mr. Ambler, in his hurried efforts to extricate his family from the ruins, had the misfortune to run a nail through his foot, and suffered other slight bruises; the young ladies received slight bruises from the flying missiles; the babe escaped unhurt.

Late News Brevities

Canada is garrisoned by 12,500 British regulars.

Spain has adopted the French system of coinage.

Boston speculators project a railroad over the Hoosac Mountains.

Alex. Dumas says he intends to visit the United States next May.

Mississippi is to have a new magazine, entitled the Colored Citizens' Monthly.

Crawford's statue of Washington, in Richmond, Va., is becoming dilapidated.

Harvard College is to have more dormitories to accommodate the 537 undergraduates.

"Elegant bridal presents to let," is an advertisement in an English fashion magazine.

Nine Parisians are prisoners for having smuggled La Lanternes from Brussels into Paris.

A supplement to Putnam's Magazine contains a paper entitled, "The Ermine in the Ring—A History of the Wood Lease Case." It purports to pierce the greatest and unhealthiest cancerous political growth in the United States—the New York "ring"—and is prepared from the official papers and duly verified by affidavit.

Moses Smith, a colored man, died at the age of one hundred and twenty. He was formerly a slave in Virginia and retained a distinct recollection of the stirring events of the Revolution. He was a servant of an officer in the legion of Light Horse Harry, and remembered many incidents, which, despite of his age, he related graphically, of the campaign of this cavalier in the Carolinas. His wife is still living at the age of one hundred and thirteen years.

ONE OF WASHINGTON'S SUPPORTERS LED TO THE POLLS BY A YOUNG LADY, VOTES FOR GRANT.—Great enthusiasm was created at the Davenport Township polls on the Fair Grounds yesterday by a spectacle which would have stirred the patriotic blood of every true-hearted American in the land.

In the afternoon a low seated buggy was driven up to the polls by a beautiful young lady. By her side was seated Deacon Gilbert, father of S. S. Gilbert, Esq., after whom Gilbertstown was named.

Deacon Gilbert is upwards of one hundred years of age. He cast his first Presidential vote in 1788 in the State of New York for George Washington, and has voted at every Presidential election since that year.

Miss Holmes assisted the centenarian patriot to alight, and placing her arm in his accompanied him to the polls. He handed an open straight Republican ticket to the judges. As he did so the bystanders broke into cheers which did not cease until three times three had been given to the aged Republican, followed by three more for the young lady who accompanied him. The citizens present gathered about the grand old man, and as they did so, he said:

"Gentlemen, I voted twice for George Washington. He was the best man for the President in his day. Now I have voted for General Grant—thank God I have lived so long—whom I believe to be the best man for President in this day. He was instrumental in saving the government which Washington founded."

It was no wonder that as the venerable supporter of Washington and of Grant—what a leap of time!—made his way to the carriage again with his beautiful friend upon his arm, many in the crowd uncovered their heads. As he seated himself the crowd again broke into cheers, which continued until Deacon Gilbert and his companion were out of sight.—Davenport (Iowa) Gazette.

The cigar makers held an indignation meeting at the City Hall Park this afternoon and resolved to start several co-operative stores in this city.

United States and Paraguay.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—The Navy Department has received dispatches from Admiral Davis relative to affairs in Paraguay. Nothing appears to justify the apprehension expressed by the papers in regard to the treatment of Bliss and Washburne. Commodore Kirkland of the Wasp had an interview with Lopez, who expressed unlimited friendship for the United States and deplored what he termed the unprincipled conduct of Minister Washburne. The Paraguayans treated the Wasp most hospitably, furnishing the needed supplies.

Democratic Civilization.

NEW CASTLE (Del.), Nov. 21.—Seven persons convicted of various petty offenses were tied to posts in the jail yard to-day and whipped. One was an old man aged seventy years, who received twenty lashes on his back. He cried bitterly during the ordeal. Jeff Davis, Thurlow Weed and H. J. Raymond

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Washington specials say the trial of Jeff Davis is again postponed by mutual agreement between Evarts and O'Conor.

It is reported in Washington that Thurlow Weed and H. J. Raymond are negotiating for the National Intelligencer, with a view to make it a Grant organ. Weed will reside here and have charge of the paper and Raymond will contribute from New York.

The Cuban Filibusters

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Marshal Murray has informed the Government that the Cuban filibusters have extensive arrangements in New York, with reinforcements in all the other large cities. He says there is danger of their getting away from New Orleans unless they are closely watched.

They have plenty of money and are purchasing arms and ammunition quite freely.

Miscellaneous

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—General Sherman's report of the affairs in the military division of the Missouri has been received at the War Department, together with those of Generals Sheridan, Augur and Terry. General Sherman details the operations on the plains. He says the people will continue to settle on the frontier and travel as though all was peaceful, over all of which matters the military authorities have no control, yet they are called upon for protection and subjected to kicks and cuffs with extreme promptness. Even if the plans of the Peace Commissioners were carried out there would still be doubt whether the Indians will make the necessary personal efforts to succeed. He fears they will at last be back upon our hands a mass of helpless savages. The only hope we have to terminate this endless Indian war is to transfer the entire business to the War Department.

Yesterday morning a mob of graders, 200 strong, attacked the town, burned the jail and the office of the Frontier Index newspaper. REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY.—The following is the report of the Grand Jury of the Circuit Court [illegible]

To the Honorable [illegible] Judge of the Court, for the County [illegible]
We, the Grand Jury of the County of Multnomah [illegible] have most respectfully report that we have discharged [illegible] and with great care [illegible] County [illegible] have returned [illegible] true bills and five not true bills
We have examined the County Jail and [illegible] the same to be in good condition [illegible] reflecting credit [illegible]
We would recommend [illegible] building to the jail [illegible] as a place of confinement for persons [illegible] or for the use [illegible] a room fitted for that purpose
We have to record [illegible] It is unhealthy [illegible] the purposes used and we [illegible] should be abated at once
At the Insane Asylum we find [illegible] and seventy males making [illegible] comfortably clothed [illegible] and well secured and the [illegible] kitchen and outhouses [illegible] indicating proper care and attention of those in charge of the Asylum.
At the County Hospital we find sixteen persons one female and fifteen males—all as well [illegible] will admit at present. We would [illegible] recommend that the party contracting for keeping the county patients be required to furnish [illegible] material than hay or straw for bedding. We [illegible] building an open plank building unfit for the [illegible] of patients during the inclement season [illegible] and that the building be [illegible] and ceiled overhead up stairs
All of which is respectfully submitted and [illegible] the persons appearing we ask to be discharged

THE DEAD HEART —This great historical drama was presented at Oro Fino Theater Saturday evening and will [illegible] to-night. Its opening act illustrates some [illegible] the condition of the people of France under the [illegible] Louis XV when the court and the aristocracy [illegible] to licentiousness while the common [illegible] groaned under burthens [illegible] The hero of the play is Robert Landry a student [illegible] the Heroine Catherine Duval the daughter [illegible] merchant—a beauty and coquette [illegible] the young sculptor. The Count St Valerie [illegible] has seen the beautiful girl and to possess [illegible] by the assistance of the Abbe Latour to [illegible] the young man [illegible] the Bastile where he is left [illegible] for seventeen years. The Count then wins her [illegible] and dies. When the revolution came and the [illegible] was seized by the people, Robert Landry was [illegible] wreck, with no feeling remaining [illegible] heart but that of revenge. He becomes a Republican magnate in the Republic, pursues the villain and the young Count St Valerie as the representative of the man who had so foully wronged him [illegible] their arrest for treason to the Republic [illegible] their condemnation to the guillotine, slays [illegible] in a duel in the Hall of Justice [illegible] Catherine whose piteous appeals for the life [illegible] awaken within his hitherto [illegible] heart a [illegible] of human sympathy and he finally relents [illegible] the Count by going to the guillotine in his [illegible] These principal events extending through the period from 1 [illegible] to 1 [illegible]94 are interspersed [illegible] comedy scenes and dazzling spectacles and tableaux. Mr Bates has provided for the [illegible] new scenery and stage accompaniments [illegible] It is the most attractive play presented [illegible] for many a year. Mr and Mrs Bates [illegible] the principal characters and sustain them [illegible] ability but the piece affords the other [illegible] special opportunities for good acting and [illegible] them—almost without exception—the [illegible] filling themselves well

[illegible] ITEMS —We clip the subjoined items from [illegible] Saturday J M Bacon Esq of this [illegible] appointed Deputy Postmaster by Mr John [illegible] Mr Fleming finds that the Postoffice now in [illegible] and the Postoffice when he kept it [illegible] are two quite different things. Mr Bacon [illegible] is just the man for the increasing business of [illegible] Steamers from the upper river arrived in [illegible] this city on Thursday the river having [illegible] at that time. We learn that the depot [illegible] R. R. at Oregon City will be located at the [illegible] on Bluff street. A fine place for it. The [illegible] County Court House has just undergone a [illegible] process, which adapts it to the purposes for [illegible] used very much better than formerly. A [illegible] party met at the residence of Mr Mc[illegible] evening of Tuesday last in this city and [illegible] the house of Rev E Geary who has just [illegible] to preside in the pulpit of the First Congregational Church and there left him substantial tokens [illegible]

—Mr Oliver Badger traveling agent and [illegible] of the National Deaf Mute Gazette [illegible] to the mute cause arrived in this city [illegible] by last steamer on a canvassing tour. The Gazette is the title of a handsome [illegible] monthly edited and published by an association [illegible] at $1 50 per annum. He [illegible] canvassing this city visit other principal [illegible] the State and we hope that he will meet with [illegible] He has the most unexceptionable [illegible] as a gentleman and belonging, as he [illegible] of the unfortunate classes of society his [illegible] itself to all the charitable and humane

—The Oregon City Enterprise says On the [illegible] steamer Echo Capt S E Miller left this city [illegible] making the round trip up there and back [illegible] days, bringing seventy five tons of freight. On [illegible] last Saturday the Albany Capt J D Miller [illegible] her first trip to Albany this season—and on the [illegible] second trip to Albany. The Success made a trip [illegible] Albany on the 17th, returning heavily [illegible] The river was falling fast on the 18th. The [illegible] along the river are filled to overflowing. At [illegible] 40,000 bushels of grain are stored in one warehouse and about 50 000 bushels in another. Unless the [illegible] soon so that this grain can be got off, serious [illegible] are looked for

[illegible] FLOURING MILL AT PORTLAND —We learn from [illegible] City Enterprise that Mr A B Woodard [illegible] agent of the Salem Mills talks of putting up a [illegible] flouring mill at Portland with an elevator [illegible] This will surely prove one of the very best [illegible] in the State. We learn that the [illegible] in this direction was made by Mr H McKay [illegible] recently as the representative of [illegible] & Co [illegible] street [illegible] Mr [illegible]

[illegible] ESCAPE —On Saturday evening one of the [illegible] Dave Johnson convicted of [illegible] and [illegible] mail robbery near Pelican station made a [illegible] from the officers just as he alighted from the [illegible] the prisoners were conveyed from the Court [illegible] the county jail. He had on the way slipped [illegible] Marshal Zieber pursued shot at him [illegible] finally brought him to a halt and marched [illegible] at the muzzle of a cocked revolver to the jail [illegible] prisoner halted he feigned being wounded [illegible] the ground and groaned in genuine heart-rending [illegible] but the dodge did not succeed. Zieber was up [illegible] and made the fellow get up and walk back

A Galena correspondent writes of Mrs Grant. The country suffered so much in feeling and pride by the vagaries of the late mistress of the White House that inquiry turns naturally upon the qualifications of Mrs Grant for the place which she is shortly to fill. WHY SHOULD MEN
INSURE THEIR LIVES,

Interesting Planetary Discoveries

The planet Mars is the only [illegible] in the whole heavens which is known to exhibit features similar to those of our earth and [illegible] a [illegible] explorations [illegible] astronomers during the last [illegible] years have resulted in the construction of a globe representing the [illegible] planet as astronomers believe it to exist. At a recent meeting of the [illegible] Society of England a globe of Mars was exhibited on which lands and seas were depicted as upon an ordinary terrestrial globe. By far the larger part of these lands and seas were laid down as well known entities respecting which no more doubt is felt among astronomers than is felt among geographers concerning the oceans and continents of our world. An interesting description of this globe appears in Fraser's Magazine. In the lands and seas developed in the planet are applied the names of those astronomers whose researches have added to our knowledge on the subject. Each pole of Mars, it seems, is capped by ice, which varies in extent according to the progress of the seasons. Around each cap there is a polar sea, the northern sea being termed the Schroter Sea, the southern Phillips Sea. The equatorial regions of Mars are mainly occupied by extensive continents four in number and named Dawes Continent, Secchi Continent and Herschel I. (Sir W [illegible]) Continent. Between Dawes and Herschel I. Continents flows a sea shaped like an hour glass, called Kaiser sea, the large southern ocean out of which it flows being denominated Dawes Ocean. Between Madler and Dawes Continents flows Dawes Strait, connecting a large southern ocean and a northern sea named after Tycho. Herschel Continent is separated from Secchi Continent by Higgins Inlet flowing from a large southern sea termed Maraldi Sea. In like manner Bessel Inlet flowing out of Airey Sea, (a northern sea) separates the Madler and Secchi Continents. Dawes Ocean separates into four large seas, and large tracts of land lie between them, but whether they are islands or not is uncertain. In Delarue Ocean there is a small island which presents so bright and glittering an aspect as to suggest the probability of its being usually snow covered. These seas, separated by lands of doubtful extent, reach from Delarue Ocean toward the South pole.

One of the most singular features of Mars is the prevalence of long and winding inlets and bottle-necked seas. These features are wholly distinct from anything on our earth. For example, Higgins Inlet is a long forked stream extending for about three thousand miles. Bessel Inlet is nearly as long, and Nasmyth Inlet is still more remarkable in its form. On our earth the oceans are three times as extensive as the Continents. On Mars a very different arrangement prevails. In the first place there is little disparity between the extent of oceans and continents, and then these are mixed up in the most complex manner. A traveler by either land or water could visit almost every quarter of the planet without leaving the element in which he began his journeyings. If he chose to go by water he could journey for upward of 30 000 miles always in sight of land, generally with land in view on both sides, in such intricate labyrinth fashion are the lands and seas of Mars intertwined.

Gen Webb, our Minister to Brazil, is urging, by desire of Mr Seward, the proposal of the Cuba Telegraph company to lay a cable to Brazil and along the coast to Rio.

In New York, the Belgium pavement costs $4 58 per square yard, the Nicolson pavement $4 75 and the granite block pavement now being laid in Broadway $10 25.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and relieved before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to beware of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz. Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and attiling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.
DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and directions for use. For Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who with bogus sworn certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths shoemakers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets. For as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus frames certificates pretended patient's letters etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.
